

Guidelines for posting to public forums Bucks County Free Library

Every website has guidelines for posting to community forums. These guidelines are for use on our the library's social networking pages.

We want to hear from you!

- Post any questions or comments you have about programs, library services, etc.
- Please stay on topic. Post comments and questions about the library.
- If you have a question that you do not want to ask publicly, use our email address at hello@buckslib.org to ask it.

Before you post, please remember:

- This is a public forum. Think before you hit publish. These comments are archived and can be found for a long time.
- Please respect other people's comments and viewpoints.

Please do not post:

- Copyrighted material that you do not have permission to reproduce.
- Content that is obscene, libelous or hateful
- Personal attacks
- Spam or commercial postings
- Personal information such as telephone numbers or addresses.

The library reserves the right to delete any posting such as the ones above from our website, blog, and FaceBook page. We will remove anything that will put us in legal jeopardy such as libelous or copyrighted information. If you continue to post copyrighted, inflammatory, and/or personal information on our site, we will block you from posting in the future.
