PRESIDENT’S REPORT
The president deferred the discussion of board officer nominations until later in the meeting.

STAFF REPORTS

Report of Doylestown Library Manager/Eric Asaris

Two new staff members were introduced: Assistant Library Manager Margarita Hossaini-zadeh and Youth Services Librarian 3 Kaitlin Malixi. The highlights of the Doylestown District Center Library’s past year were provided to the board. The Summer Reading Program was very successful with over 500,000 minutes read by participants, The library continued to hold musical performances both inside and outside the library, and for 2017 more local talent will be showcased. Movie night has been revived and has had great turnouts. The Doylestown Friends group and their president, Rocio Higney, were thanked for their support. Rocio thanked Doylestown Library Manager Eric Asaris for his part in their effort to introduce 20 families to the Doylestown Library who normally wouldn’t have an opportunity to visit. They were extremely happy to obtain library cards and discover all the resources the library has to offer.
Report of Chief Executive Officer/Martina Kominiarek

The five Bucks County Library system members met to discuss dissolving their system arrangement. Further discussions will take place in February to review the Consortium agreement, and more information will be provided to the board at their March meeting. At a recent district meeting members discussed making changes to the circulation policies, and in the early part of 2017 there will be updates to them. BCFL will be applying to the state to participate in a summer free lunch program for children. Two libraries qualify – Bensalem and Levittown – and those libraries would serve as sites for children to obtain free lunches during the summer. Participating local caterers would supply the lunchboxes to the libraries.

New Business

The election of BCFL board officers normally takes place in December. Since there was no November meeting, a nominating committee was not in place to present a slate of officers. The president proposed sitting the same executive board for 2017 but the board wanted to check the bylaws to see if that was allowed. The election of officers was then tabled for next month.

Bids for the construction of offices on the second floor of the Doylestown Library was presented to the board, with the lowest bid coming from Donald E. Reisinger, Inc. in the amount of $66,485. The bids were reviewed by the Finance Committee at their December meeting.
MOTION to APPROVE a bid from Donald E. Reisinger, Inc. in the amount of $66,485 for office construction was made by Jones, SECONDED by Draper, and APPROVED unanimously.

Three policies were updated and presented for approval:

1) Grants Policy (DEV 2) – Changes made to this policy were to move supervision and responsibility to the Finance and Development Office.
2) Gifts of Library Materials (DEV 5) – Donations of materials were part of the Collection Management policies. This update changes it to the Finance and Development Office.
3) Inclement Weather Policy (MNG 7) – Information on how to find out about library closing or delays are now included in the policy.

MOTION to APPROVE the revised Grants Policy – DEV 2 was made by Moore, SECONDED by Draper, and APPROVED unanimously.

MOTION to APPROVE the revised Gifts of Library Materials Policy – DEV 5 was made by Moore, SECONDED by Foerst, and APPROVED unanimously.

MOTION to APPROVE the revised Inclement Weather Policy – MNG 7 was made by Rogers, SECONDED by Draper, and APPROVED unanimously.

There being no further business, a MOTION to ADJOURN was made at 7:15 p.m. by Jones, SECONDED by Rogers, and so MOVED.
