WONDERFUL WEATHER

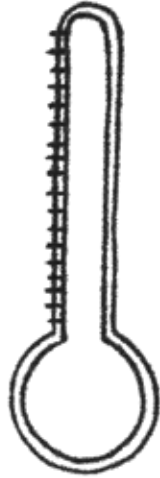

Today's theme is all about the weather! Weather can be many things. Weather can be hot or it can be cold. Weather can be wet and rainy, or it can be dry and sunny. There are so many different types of weather! Weather is important because it helps us decide what we do each day. When it is sunny we want to go outside and play. When it is rainy outside we stay inside and play!

Today's fun turns you into the weatherperson, has a lesson on different types of weather, and a wordsearch!

Weather Report

Record today's weather! Fill out the different sections to help remember what the weather was like today!
