- Using chalk, crayons, markers, or paint, help your little one draw their favorite character!
- With your little one, use blankets, pillows, and furniture to create a superhero hideout! Then, take a book in there and have a reading adventure.
- Talk to your little one about what your favorite character or TV show was when you were a kid.
- Work with your child to use things around the house to make a costume or mask of a character from their favorite book or television show.
- Check out our 'Storytime at Home' plan on the Summer Quest page of our website, and use our e-resources to hold your own storytime with your little one.

These activities are intended for children ages 6-12.
Complete at least three to earn your badge!

Explore

- Read the first book in a series you've never read before.
- Read a graphic novel or comic. Hoopla has some great options.
- Ask your family members what fandom they belong to and learn about it.

Write

- Write your own fan fiction. Write a story set in a fictional world you like or about a character you're a fan of!
- Be a comic creator! The Library of Congress has great resources, including an interview with Dav Pilkey, if you need inspiration.
- Write a cinquain poem about your favorite character.

Create

- Design your own costume using materials you find around the house.
- Use sidewalk chalk to promote your fandom around the neighborhood.
- Create a superhero/super villain and make a trading card of them. Include their strengths, weaknesses, and backstory!
